

How to Apply for the 2009 JAG Grants:

1. Go to the BJA Website: <http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/BJA/index.html>
2. Under the “What’s New Heading” At the Top of the Page Your Department will need to click on the Solicitations Hyperlink... (See below) This is where the department will find the application.

Recovery Act JAG Solicitations

BJA has released the Recovery Act: Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant (JAG) Program State and Local solicitations.

3. On the solicitations page you will need to check the allocations tab to make sure that you are receiving money. (See below)

Recovery Act: JAG Program Allocations and Disparate Information

4. If you are not on the list, then you are not receiving any money. Once you have confirmed they you are receiving money you are ready to complete the application. (Note: Some of the State Contacts have already called all of the departments in their States letting them know that they are receiving money, but not everyone has been contacted.)
5. Click on the Local Solicitation Tab (See below)

Recovery Act: Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant (JAG) Formula Program: Local Solicitation

Applications due: May 18, 2009

Note: The project start period is March 1, 2009, and there is a statutory 4-year period within which to spend funds.

6. Within the documentation on the Local Solicitation Tab you will find the hyperlink to the actual Grants Management System but here is the link in case the department would like to skip straight to the application:
<https://grants.ojp.usdoj.gov/>.
7. Federal Contacts have confirmed that our Products are valid/legitimate/very much the types of purchases that the JAG money has been allocated for. The department will receive their money 60 days after the application is completed.

Note: If the department has specific questions or needs help completing the application, they can contact their State Representative for help.

GOOD LUCK GRABBING THAT MONEY!
